Event Overview

The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, also known as Orange Shirt Day is observed annually on September 30th, to educate and remind Canadians about the history of Residential Schools. On this day we memorialize the children lost to the residential school system and honour Survivors, their families, and their communities.

Attendees are invited to enjoy the areas of reflection that will surround the flag raising ceremony area and interact with the Bradford Bulldogs and Central York Panthers hockey teams who will be in site in orange Jerseys.

An information table and colouring sheets for youth will be set up, donations can be made to the Orange Shirt Society on site for those who would like to contribute.

National Breastfeeding Week Flag Raising Ceremony

Date and Time: Tuesday, October 1 10:00 am - 10:30 am

Address: 471 West Park Avenue

Join us on Tuesday, October 1 at 10:00 am for the National Breastfeeding Week Flag Raising Ceremony at the BWG Leisure Centre - 471 West Park Ave.

#NBW2024 is an opportunity to advocate for improved breastfeeding support for families in Canada. There are inequalities affecting breastfeeding in our society every day. Canadian Breastfeeding Week is observed during the 40th week of the year, typically in October. This timing reflects the first week of a baby's life when breastfeeding often starts. The 10th month of the year, October, symbolically marks the beginning of this important journey for many families.
