IEPs (Individual Education Plans) can benefit students in many ways. But how can parents and caregivers navigate through the process?

Join Sastee Maharaj, a local ABA therapy expert, to learn how home life can support school life so students thrive.

Individual Education Plans for Ontario students are on the rise. The creation of the IEP document involves the child, parents/guardians, teachers, and principals. This program is intended to explain IEPs to parents/guardians who may be unfamiliar with the process, and to empower them to support the student at home. Focus is on the elementary school age.

Join Melissa de Castro, a passionate educator and creative facilitator, for a special seniors art session at the Bradford Library-designed to spark joy, self-expression, and connection through hands-on creativity. With a heart for community and years of experience nurturing creativity across all ages, Melissa brings a warm, encouraging approach that makes art both fun and meaningful.

This engaging session will explore a variety of artistic experiences, including watercolour painting, flower pot decorating, sensory-rich salt dough/clay creations, and more. These activities are not only enjoyable but also deeply beneficial-supporting fine motor skills, reducing stress, and encouraging cognitive stimulation. For seniors, especially those experiencing cognitive decline, creative expression can spark memories, improve mood, and enhance communication in gentle, accessible ways.

Come create, connect, and experience the joy of art in a welcoming, relaxed setting. No experience needed!

Children's Mental Health Information Session

Date and Time: Thursday, May 15 4:30 pm - 5:30 pm

Address: 425 Holland St W, Bradford, ON L3Z 0J2

Location: Jamal Pascall Room

Presented by Anushka Fernandes MSW, RSW

Are you a parent or caregiver who is feeling stuck or unsure about what to do about your child's meltdowns? Is your child struggling with symptoms of anxiety, depression, or grief? Are you looking for support for your child's mental health concerns, or feel overwhelmed with where to go for support?

This free information session will cover brief information (psychoeducation) regarding brain development and emotional regulation, mood and behaviour, and a generalized overview of navigating support for children and families. The goal of this session will be to support parents and caregivers with learning more about children's mental health.

Topics covered will include: Defining children's mental health, Common Mental Health Concerns, Overview of brain development, Overview of behaviour and emotional regulation, and Community Resources/ How to access formal support.

About our presenter

Hi, I'm Anushka! I'm a Registered Social Worker (MSW, RSW) in Ontario who is passionate about Child and Adolescent Mental Health. I bring with me over 10 years of experience working with children, youth, and families in a variety of settings (including youth recreational programming, the Ontario shelter system, Community Mental Health- Child and Adult).

I currently work as a Social Worker who provides psychotherapy for children and adults through my private practice in Bradford and Newmarket. My areas of work include supporting individuals who are experiencing concerns with mood and behaviour, grief and loss, and childhood/ attachment based trauma. My area of specialty is in pediatric mental health (children 6 years+) and parenting work.
